THE PACIFIC HARDWARE CO., L'd

Have just received an invoice of these Goods

While at the Coast Mr. Torbert investigated the merits of different Stoves and Ranges and found the consensus of opinion overwhelmingly in favor of the "UNIVERSAL." We have decided to give our friends in Honolulu an opportunity to get the BEST.

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Gathered From All Quarters of the World.

Dr. Jameson's trial is reported to have cost the British Government $250,000.

The King of Siam has sent his two sons to England to be educated there.

The opinion of Japanese medical experts is averse to the use of the bicycle by either sex.

Steps have been taken for starting a cycling club at Penang. The promoters are Chinese.

Prince Oscar Bernadotte, the second son of the present King of Sweden and Norway, has a Sunday school for the children of the higher classes.

In the year 1820, an Irish gentleman named Wilde, rode on horseback 127 miles on the course of Kil dare, in six hours and twenty minutes for a wager of 1,000 guineas.

Accidents to bicyclers throughout the United States, involving serious injury, are now about 180 per day—fatal casualties are, however, something less than one percent of the whole.

The Key Monument Association of Frederick, Md., had last month $8,689.97 towards the $10,000 required to place a suitable monument over the grave of the author of "The Star Spangled Banner."

The editor of the Northville, Kas., Herald is a cousin of Mrs. W. J. Bryan, and in a recent issue of that paper he states that "the only good sense Bryan ever displayed was in marrying into our family."

A rural swain, in announcing his approaching nuptials in a town paper, wrote as follows: "Friends and relatives of the family are invited to attend. Kindly omit rice, as it disagrees with the bride."

At the Wycombe Borough Sessions, England, a few weeks ago, the Earl and Countess Carrington were each summoned for riding a bicycle without a light in the town. The summonses were dismissed on payment of cost, amounting to 5s 6d in each case.

In the new Chicago Baptist Hospital, which claims to be "the most complete institution of its size and kind in existence," the important position of head nurse is filled by a Miss Hise Nagano, a Japanese nurse who has spent several years in America.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland has a miniature farm, the produce of which she gives to the poor and to the hospitals. Her Swiss chalet is stocked with the accumulated toys of twelve years or more, and here she has learned to "keep house" in the most approved Dutch style.

Lady Georgiana Grey, aunt of Earl Grey, is nearly a hundred years of age, but though she is not very brisk upon her legs, she manages to keep informed on politics and the talk of the day, by having guests to dinner almost every night.

If Mr. Cecil Rhodes be put on trial it will be the first time that criminal proceedings have been instituted against a member of the Privy Council since Lord Melville was impeached for malversation of the public funds 91 years ago.

Thirty-five thousand dollars seems an incredibly large sum to pay for a palm for a conservatory. Yet this amount was actually paid by Miss Helen Gould for a fine specimen of the Madagascar "traveller's tree." The palm was more than thirty feet high and had leaves or fronds six feet long. Miss Gould's conservatories contain a great many very rare and valuable palms, the cultivation of which is one of her chief hobbies.

The Emperor of Russia has conferred upon the Duchess of Connaught the Order of St. Catherine.
